How to Experience an Awesome Event

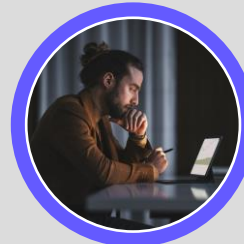

Even if you're an introvert, don't stay quiet. Fun fact: people who actively participate always enjoy the conference the most. Join the workshops and discussions!

Grab a drink with the rest of us in the evening. Meeting people is the most valuable part of any conference

Talk to someone new about something other than work. To avoid unnecessary intros, we have created helpful name tags.

Don't work during the presentations – we know it is tempting to do it all, but we believe you can resist if you try :)

We are looking forward to seeing you in Lisbon at the Collaboration for Insurance Excellence conference.
